Note: As only the permanently disabled applicants residing in the Central, Southern, Northern, Eastern, North Central, and Uva provinces have qualified for the interviews based on the marks of the written examination for the vacancies allocated for the permanently disabled persons, the B(ii) vacancy lists have been displayed only for those specific provinces.

03. Accordingly, calling for interviews shall not be considered as an entitlement for receiving an appointment. The applicants can check whether they are among those called for the interviews at this stage by entering their National Identity Card (NIC) number or Index Number. (If the applicant has applied for this examination as a person with a permanent disability, and as there is a possibility of being selected based on the marks obtained for both the B(ii) list vacancies allocated for permanently disabled persons as well as other B(i) list vacancies under the relevant province, such applicants are required to check both B lists relating to their province and confirm the subjects for which they have qualified for the interviews.)

04. Accordingly, the steps will be taken to inform in writing those who have qualified for the interviews regarding the date, time, venue of the interview, and other documents to be submitted in due course sending letters to the addresses provided by each applicant at the time of applying for the written examination. Further, the document indicating the dates, times, and venues for such interview will also be displayed as mentioned above, during the period from 15.10.2026 to 30.10.2026, on the website of this Ministry and on the websites of the Provincial Public Service Commissions or the Provincial Ministries of Education / Provincial Chief Ministries upon the recommendations of such Commissions.

05. Further, in accordance with Note 4 or Note 6 of the aforesaid Gazette notifications, the steps should be taken to present the information related to your degree using the G2 instructions given herewith at the time of appearing for the interview in order to prove that you have fulfilled the degree qualifications relevant to the subjects which you have qualified for the interview.
